MEN'S INDOOR TRACK & FIELD PREVIEW

Christopher Newport Seeks Repeat Title

Feb 15, 2017

VIDEO: CAC Men's Indoor Track & Field Pre-Championship Webcast

At the 2016 CAC men's indoor track & field championship, Christopher Newport totaled 166 points to earn its first indoor title at the Freeman Center, snapping Salisbury's four-year reign atop the indoor meet.

The Captains will once again serve as the host of the championship meet, beginning Saturday morning at the Freeman Center on the CNU campus.

Salisbury, which finished in second place last year, had previously won each indoor title since the meet was added to the CAC championship lineup in 2012.

This year's meet will feature some of the most talented athletes in the history of the championship, as numerous CAC standouts have broken conference and school records this indoor season, and rank at or near the top of Division III in their respective events entering the weekend.

This year's meet will feature eight teams for the first time, as Southern Virginia joins the conference fray after adding track & field as a varsity sport this year.

Below is a brief preview of each team entering the 2017 championship meet:

CHRISTOPHER NEWPORT is looking to repeat as CAC Indoor Champions after the program won its first league title last year. Guided by head coach Tyler Wingard, the Captains have pieced together a solid indoor season so far this year, highlighted by several school and conference records. Earlier this year, Jeff Dover broke the league's mile record, and Wesley Shrieves set a new CAC long jump mark. CNU also welcomes back nine other All-League performers from 2016 and returns senior Dominique Torres, who was sidelined last year with an injury but holds the CAC's indoor long jump record.

Tenth-year head coach Dale Luy guides FROSTBURG STATE into the CAC Championships this Saturday with five of the league's top-five performances. Junior Collin Schultz leads the way as he ranks first in the high jump with an ECAC height of 1.97 meters. The Bobcats also rank fourth in the distance medley relay (11:32.73), while senior Patrick Broussoul is fourth in the weight throw (14.71 meters) and sophomore Christian Healey ranks fourth in the triple jump with an ECAC distance of 13.64 meters. Freshman Kevon Adams sits in fifth in the long jump at 6.73 meters (ECAC).

MARY WASHINGTON will rely on a large talented freshman group in this year's CAC Championship. High jumper David Danek has produced consistent top results through the season, as has sprinter Camron Rauch, and runners Luke Robertson and Jeff Gibson. All-CAC returnees Zach Kerns, Kevin McCarthy, Daniel Forjan, and Ben Sorensen will also look to score big points for the Eagles.

PENN STATE HARRISBURG will be competing in its third CAC Championship this weekend. The Lions return a number of key performers from last year's squad that took sixth place at the indoor meet. Sophomore Jalil Clayton is back, who won the high jump at last year's championship to become the first athlete to win a CAC individual title for Penn State Harrisburg. Other key performers for the Lions include Josiah Owhe, Vladimir Theophile, Cameron Yon, Derrick Young, and Alex White.

SALISBURY will look to make big strides at the 2017 CAC Indoor Track & Field Championships. The team will be led in the field events by junior Matthew Adedeji. Adedeji has turned in a solid indoor season earning CAC Athlete of the Week recognition and breaking the Salisbury record in the triple jump at the Vince Brown Invitational on Feb. 4. His jump of 46' 7.25" not only broke the school record but also ranks him second overall in the CAC and 13th overall in NCAA Division III. Andrew Volz will also look to make an impact in the field events as he will compete in the shot put. Volz earned a top-five finish at the Patriot Games placing third after recording a throw of 46' 8.75". In the track events the Sea Gulls will be anchored by Zach Schmelz who has been impressive thus far. Schmelz captured CAC weekly honors and is one of the top CAC athletes in the 200-meter and 400-meter. Junior Eric Halton has also made an impact in the track events. He has earned top finishes in 400-meter this year and is currently ranked first in the 400-meters in the conference with a time of 49.92 seconds.

SOUTHERN VIRGINIA is looking forward to competing in its first-ever CAC Championship event in indoor track & field. The Knights will see if shot-putter Derek Blasko can continue to improve his throw and place in the top five. Also to keep an eye on is Colter May in the mid-distance events.

WESLEY will look to capture its first CAC Indoor Track & Field Championship. The Wolverines cracked the top-five in the USTFCCA Computer Rankings last week for the first time in school history and will hope the praises translate to the conference meet. Greg Taylor and Roland Attoh-Okine will spearhead the Wolverines on the track. Taylor was named CAC Track Athlete of the Week for Jan. 24 and ranks 14th in Division III in the 60-meter dash (6.93). Attoh-Okine has put together great times in the 60-meter hurdles, registering the eighth-best time in the event clocking in at 8.19 seconds.

YORK enters the championships coming off a solid regular season in which times and performances have continued to improve heading into championship Saturday. The Spartans have been led during the year by their pole vault crew headlined by Darris Rodrigues and Kevin Landis. The Spartans' distance group will be expected to score points for the Green and White led by Grant Dell. Seniors Darien Gray and Rick Jones will be expected to be the big scorers for York in the sprint and jump events.

WOMEN'S INDOOR TRACK & FIELD PREVIEW: Christopher Newport Aims to Continue Winning Streak

Feb 15, 2017

VIDEO: CAC Women's Indoor Track & Field Pre-Championship Webcast

Christopher Newport claimed its third straight indoor title at the 2016 CAC Women's Indoor Track & Field Championship, making the Captains a perfect three-for-three at the indoor meet since joining the CAC in the 2013-14 school year.

The Captains will once again serve as the host of the championship meet, beginning Saturday morning at the Freeman Center on the CNU campus.

A number of CAC athletes have put together stellar performances this winter, with several records and NCAA top times being posted. The list of performers includes CNU's Logan Harrington, who captured indoor athlete of the year honors at last year's meet.

This year's meet will feature eight teams for the first time, as Southern Virginia added track & field as a varsity sport this season.

Below is a team-by-team preview entering the championship meet:

CHRISTOPHER NEWPORT is looking to claim its fourth straight CAC Indoor Championship after winning the first three league crowns since joining the conference in 2013-14. Led by head coach Tyler Wingard, the Captains welcome back four All-Conference performers from last year, including reigning CAC Indoor Track & Field Athlete of the Year Logan Harrington. So far this year, Harrington boasts the conference's top time in both the 800 and mile. Meanwhile, Hannah Bowden is ranked first in the conference in the long jump after winning the league title last year, while Hannah Shoemaker sits first in the shot put.

FROSTBURG STATE heads into the CAC Championships behind the strength of several of the league's top athletes. Junior Kayla Truesdel, a four-time All-CAC performer, boasts three of the CAC's top times in the 60 (7.85), 200 (25.87) and 400-meter dashes (1:00.08). She is currently 14th in the nation in the 60, 22nd in the 200 and she has easily qualified for the ECAC Championships in all three. Bobcat freshman Eileen Estrada enters her first league championship meet ranked second in the triple jump (10.29 meters), while Frostburg is also ranked third in the 4x400-meter relay (4:13.12) and fourth in the distance medley relay (14:16.59). Junior Zoe Harris leads the throwers at sixth in the shot put at 10.89 meters.

MARY WASHINGTON will look to All-CAC junior Janel Moore, as well as top freshman Erin Andrewlevich and senior Sheree Turner, to score top points this winter. Freshmen Quintasia Horsley and Kristy White have turned in top performances during the season, and veterans Bailey Ratliff, Jillian Weisbeck, and Danielle Holzhauser will also look to provide production for the Eagles, who bring a young, talented squad to this year's Championships.

PENN STATE HARRISBURG will be competing in its third CAC Championship this weekend. The Lions return a number of key performers from last year's squad that took sixth place at the indoor meet. Sophomore Ashley Williams is back, who won the 60 meter hurdles at last year's championship to become the first athlete to win a CAC individual title for Penn State Harrisburg. Other key performers for the Lions include Logan Akers, Rachale Hair, and Veronica Repetz.

SALISBURY will be led by senior Meghan McGowan. McGowan captured back-to-back wins at the Patriot Games and Vince Brown Invitational in the high jump. Her jump of 5' 7.75" at the Patriot Games broke the Salisbury record and ranks her third in NCAA Division III while also earning her CAC weekly honors as Athlete of the Week. Freshman Kyleigh Dumas will look make an impact in her first CAC Indoor Championship. Dumas turned in an impressive jump at the Vince Brown invitational where she captured a third-place finish after recording a height of 10' 10". In the track events Alison Schwartz will look to continue her success from the regular season. Schwartz earned a personal record in the 3000-meter run at George Mason coming in at a time of 11:04.94. Jamie Farley will also look to make an impact at the CAC's. Farley is one of the top CAC athletes in the 200-meter and 400-meter.

SOUTHERN VIRGINIA is excited to participate in its first-ever CAC Championship event. The top performer of the young team has been Sydney Bigelow in numerous mid-distance events. The team hopes to use the meet as a springboard for outdoor events and seasons to come.

After being ranked as high as 17th in the USTFCCCA rankings and finishing second in the 2016, WESLEY looks to impress in the indoor championships. The Wolverines are led on the track by All-American sprinters Elizsha Streeter, Briana Artis, Quadira Minus and Angel Hall. Freshman jumper Jasmine Brown was named an ECAC Rookie of the Week earlier in the season and holds the sixth-best mark in Division III in the high jump so far this indoor season with a jump of 1.70 meters. Sophomore Jourdyn Beverly will pace the throws for the Wolverines after recording the best mark in the CAC in the weight throw (15.64m) and the second-best heave in the shot put (12.07m).

YORK heads into the 2017 championships looking to make a jump in standings of the championship finishers. York is led by a strong distance group led by Kathleen Cannon, Jess Delviscio, Alicia Dillman, and Alayna De Bruin. Sprinter and hurdler Ericka Quenzer comes into the championships looking to build off a strong second half of the indoor season as she established a new school record in the 60 meter hurdles late in the regular season. Freshman Georgia Gillerist set a new school record in the 200 meter run as she should contend for points in the sprints for York.
